Northwest Guilford High School
Greensboro, North Carolina

Foreword

We, the class of 1965, present this yearbook as a lasting memory of the activities and accomplishments of the present student body.

The senior class looks toward graduation with mixed emotions, anticipating the future and remembering the happy hours of the past three years at Northwest High School where we, as students:

Take time to work—
it is the price of success.
Take time to think—
it is the source of power.
Take time to play—
it is the secret of perpetual youth.
Take time to read—
it is the fountain of wisdom.
Take time to be friendly—
it is the road to happiness.
Take time to dream—
it is hitching your wagon to a star.
Take time to love and be loved—
it is the privilege of the gods.
Take time to look around—
it is too short a day to be selfish.
Take time to laugh—
it is the music of the soul.

—Old English Prayer

We Dedicate . . .

Mrs. Joyce Tibbals

Nothing like a cigarette and a cup of coffee to relax.

The Viking is proudly dedicated to a person who has unselfishly given of herself in both the scholastic and extra-curricular realms of our school. We admire her for her sense of honor and her devotion to her work. Not only has she inspired students through classroom instruction, but has also created a growing interest in the literary arts. It is for the latter, especially, that we pay tribute and express deep appreciation to Mrs. Joyce Tibbals.

As the play, "The Night of January 16" is rehearsed, Mrs. Tibbals looks on with interest.

Mrs. Tibbals explains to Angela the proper way to outline Macbeth.

Take time to work-
it is the price of success.

Spencer,
I really have enjoyed knowing you you are a small person and I wish to let you always know
you really are
Love
Kathy

Administration And

Not only do they instruct us in the classroom, but are also an everpresent help and guide whenever needed.

it is the price of success.

Alma Mater . . .

*Friendship's ties remain forever,
Formed at our great school.
For they stir our best endeavor;
They our lives shall rule.*

*Northwest, Northwest,
Hail to thee!
Long may thy banner wave,
Ever may thy daughters love thee,
And thy sons be brave.*

*We pledge to thee our heart's devotion;
Thine our lives shall be,
Fidelity our best emotion
Through eternity.*

*Northwest, Northwest,
Hail to thee!
Long may thy banner wave,
Ever may thy daughters love thee,
And thy sons be brave.*

Reminisce and Dream . . .

Between the covers of this book are presented the memories of our 1964-65 school year. We leave behind us happy moments which we will always cherish—homecoming, football games, Christmas dance, Senior prom, graduation and many others...

In the past three years we have become a part of Northwest and it has become a part of us. We, the Seniors, hope that we have contributed greatly in making our school a better place of learning for future students.

As a new road unfolds before us, it leads us to the future and all dreams that are a part of things that are yet to be. And so it is that we "Take time to dream. And hitch our wagon to a star."

We thank you...

The yearbook staff expresses its appreciation to all of those who helped to make the 1965 VIKING possible.

To the seniors who sold ads and the entire student body for co-operating in making pictures, we say, "Thank you."

We are grateful to Mr. Bob Chappell, our layout artist, who worked patiently with us on the yearbook. What he accomplished in one day, it would have taken us weeks to do.

We thank Hunter Publishing Company for publishing our yearbook.
We are really proud of it!

Thank you, Mr. Boswell, for taking our photographs for us. We appreciate your coming on special nights to make extra pictures.

We would especially like to thank our advertisers, without whose support we could not have published our yearbook.

We appreciate the help of Mr. Dick Clark, who chose Miss Viking for us.

Teachers, we thank you for co-operating with us during all the class interruptions of making pictures and for excusing us from class when it was necessary to work. We are grateful for Mr. Billings's help and co-operation.

We especially thank Miss Everhart, our sponsor, to whom we took all the questions and problems of the yearbook. She helped us in every way, and without her help and advice, we could not have met the deadlines and compiled the yearbook.

We are grateful to our parents who came for the staff members who worked after school, and the many other ways they encouraged and supported our efforts.

Spencer,

Best wishes, good luck, and may all your dreams come true. You sure are a very swell person. Even if you do act crazy sometimes. You have got one of the best personalities of anyone I know. And a good personality like yours is worth a whole lot in life. I know you have made many friends both boys and especially these girls, but I hope I am one of your friends, because to me you are a real close friend. I sure have had a lot of fun this year when you and I were cutting up during school. Especially in the halls and of course going to and from basketball and baseball games this year. I just can't wait until football practice starts, when me and you can get out there and run ourselves to death. See you during the summer.

Your friendly,
Sheldon
